Local politics and political questions will come to the fore with a rush be-fore the present week is out. The prediction is made that the annual town meeting and election this year will be anything but a perfunctory event. There have been whisperings for weeks that ambitions to hold down some of the public offices now held by others are perking up as the time to decide for another year approaches and more than one contest for places on the tickets of the two parties is certain in the caucuses. Dayville Scores Significant 13 Runs to Danielson's 4.

Well, it's over, and the worst is not to come. Danielson has had a taste of league baseball and the agony was wound up Saturday with a slaughter of a makeshift team exiled from Norwich-Taftville support to hobble through the season as the representatives of this little town.

the Dayville aggregation and with the aid of some mighty poor playing by the team that was supposed to support him the visitors were able to score six runs in the first inning. Danielson could only collect five safeties of Kelley's delivery.

There were only a few of the faithful up to see the finish of league ball in Danielson for this season and they were somewhat of a foriorn company when they came away from the grounds. The team that Manager Benoît sent out to try and win this last completed, including the election of officers, a banquet is to be served the delegates in the convention hall.

As an introductory to this annual state gathering of the society, a temperance rally was held in the Bradley theater Sunday evening, addresses being delivered by Rev. M. A. Sullivan and Attorney John J. Lawless of New London. The quartette of the Congregational church and L. O. Williams, organist, assisted at the rally.
